

In Great Britain
people send Christmas cards to their friends and relatives for Christmas

People decorate a Christmas tree with baubles and colored lights.

Children write letters to Father Christmas and leave biscuits or mince pies for Father Christmas and a carrot for Rudolph

It's a tradition to go
"carol singing".
People go from house to house singing Christmas songs.

People watch TV
to listen to the Queen's speech
on Christmas Day