

A BEAR CALLED PADDINGTON

1) Read the story

Paddington is a special bear who loves marmalade sandwiches and lives in Peru with his aunt Lucy and his uncle Pastuzo. When an earthquake destroys their home, Paddington is forced to relocate to London to find a new family to live with.

Paddington Bear™ © Paddington and Company Ltd 2005

The Brown family finds Paddington alone at Paddington Station and reluctantly let him come home with them. Mrs. Brown promises to help Paddington find his explorer friend. Paddington hopes this friend might give him a home.

Meanwhile, Millicent, an evil museum taxidermist, finds out about Paddington. She wants to find him so she can stuff him and put him in her museum. When Paddington is kidnapped, the Brown family realizes how much they love him and they save him.

2) CIRCLE THE RIGHT OPTION:

- 1) Paddington is a:                      giraffe                      bear                      dog
- 2) he loves:                              chocolate                      fruit                      marmalade
- 3) Paddington comes from:      Peru                      U.S.A                      Italy
- 4) the Browns find Paddington at:    an airport                      at Paddington station
- 5) Paddington hopes to find:      a policeman                      an explorer                      a doctor
- 6) Millicent is a:                      secretary                      taxidermist                      teacher
- 7) Millicent is:                              evil                      good                      kind
- 8) She wants to put Paddington in her:    station                      house                      museum

3) ANSWER

- 1) What is Paddington wearing? _____
- 2) What is his favourite food? _____

