

December 25th

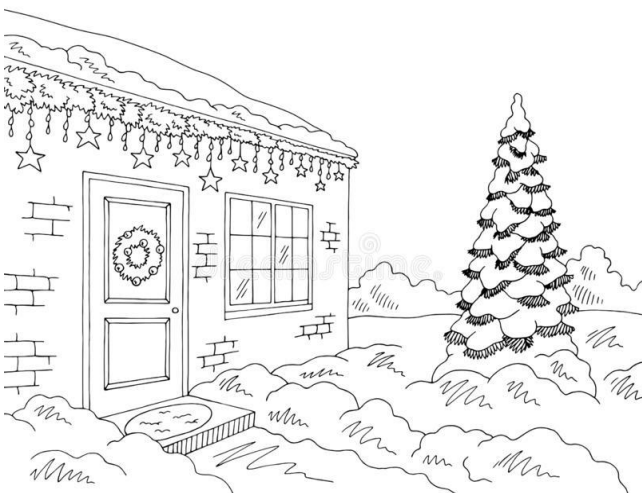

Families celebrate Christmas in America. It's a very important family holiday.

Christmas is on December 25th. People decorate a Christmas tree with baubles and colored lights.

Children write letters to Santa Claus and on Christmas Eve he comes down the chimney and leaves gifts under the tree and in the stockings.

Families decorate their houses with wreaths and lights