

The story of Saint George and the dragon

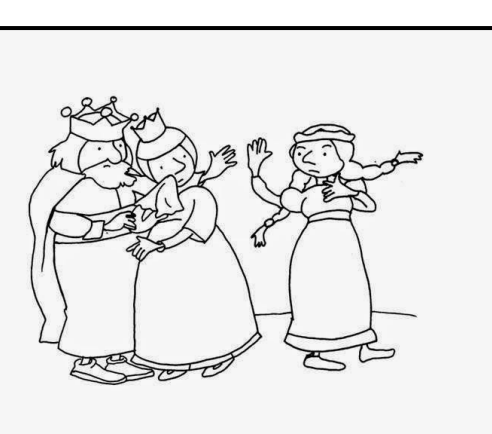

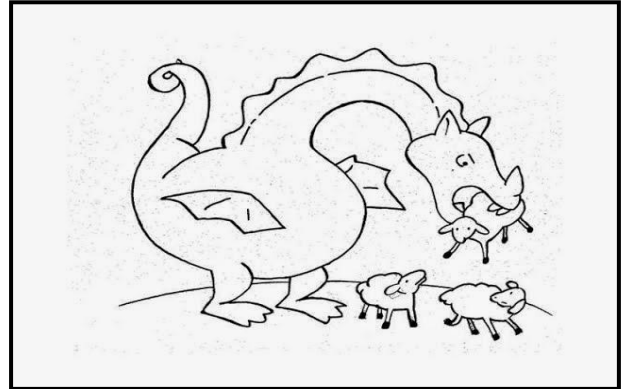

George is a brave knight.

One day he comes to a small village and meets a man who lives in a cave next to the village. The hermit tells the knight about the awful things that are happening there.

A terrible dragon lives in the lake and attacks the village every day.

The villagers don't know what to do. First, they give the dragon all their food, but the dragon just takes the food and still attacks the village.

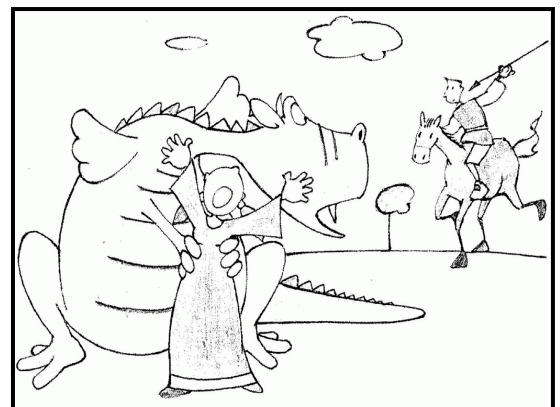

So the villagers give the dragon all the animals from their farms. The dragon continues to attack the villagers.

So then they give the dragon all their gold and jewels. The dragon takes all their money, but still is not satisfied. The king sends his army to try and capture the dragon, but the dragon is very strong and the knights of the army run away.

So the king sends his only daughter, the princess, to the lake to wait for the dragon.

When George hears this he rides to the lake. Just then the dragon jumps out from the lake and wants to eat the princess. George attacks the dragon. He fights very bravely and kills the dragon. George and the princess return to the village and everyone is very happy.

Today, the story of George's bravery is remembered and George is known as the patron saint of England.

