

Presidents' Day

Presidents' Day is a national holiday in the United States and is also officially known as Washington's Birthday. It is celebrated on the third Monday of February.

George Washington

In that day Americans celebrate all United States Presidents, but especially George Washington and Abraham Lincoln because these Presidents were born in this month.

Lincoln

This day is a national holiday.

Do you know any Presidents' names? Write them.

