

GRANDPARENTS' DAY IN U.S.A. AND IN GREAT BRITAIN

Many families in the United States observe National Grandparents Day on the first Sunday of September.

Great Britain observes this day on the 2nd October.

This day honors grandparents

What Do People Do?

Many people honor their grandparents through a range of activities such as gift-giving, card-giving, and for children to invite their grandparents to school for a day where they participate in special lessons.

Many school students organize nice shows for grandparents or story-telling activities.

About four million greeting cards are sent on National Grandparents Day.

Symbols

The official song of National Grandparents Day is "A Song for Grandma And Grandpa" by Johnny Prill.

The official flower for the day is the "forget-me-not" flower.

The flowers are small and blue.
