

BOO! Halloween

Halloween is celebrated in Great Britain, Ireland and America on October 31st. Children dress in costumes and go from door to door saying "Trick or Treat" and they receive candies.

Many people decorate their houses with decoration as: ghosts, skeletons, bats, witches...

There are many costumes for Halloween: vampires, ghosts, mummies and witches, but also princesses, kings, cowboys, pirates, Superman, Batman, fairies...

Haunted houses are popular around the time of Halloween.

People carve pumpkins, called "jack-o-lanterns" and put inside candles, and place them in front of their houses.

Halloween is a fun holiday for everyone!
