

New Year's Day

New Year's Eve is the day before New Year's Day. Many cities around the world celebrate with fireworks and at midnight there are fantastic fireworks displays.

Many people organize big parties.

They dance and cheer at midnight to say welcome to the new year.

New Year's Day is celebrated in almost every country around the world. Most people spend the day with their families and friends. Special foods are eaten to bring good luck in the next year. In Great Britain and in the U.S.A., the day is celebrated with parades and football games.

New Year's Day is also a day to think about the past year. Many people think of things they want to change in their lives. They make New Year's Resolutions to start good habits or to stop bad ones.

Tom's resolutions:

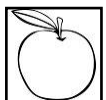

1) I will brush my teeth everyday

2) I will wear my seat belt

3) I will eat one fruit everyday

4) Your resolution: _____

Colour

In many places, the past year is symbolized by an old man and the new year by a baby