

What is a groundhog?

Groundhogs are small animals that look like squirrels.

They live in forest in North America.

They eat grass and nuts and they sleep under the ground.

They sleep through the winter

Every year Americans celebrate

"Groundhog Day" on February 2nd.

Groundhog

Answer:

1) What are Groundhogs? _____

2) Where do they live? _____

3) What do groundhogs eat? _____

4) Where do they sleep? _____

5) When is Groundhog Day? _____

