

HALLOWEEN

1) Read: Halloween is a special day for English children. They celebrate it on October 31st. Halloween is special because it's a night time festivity. At night children put on scary costumes and they go out for sweets. They have a special bag for the sweets. In the streets you can see ghosts, witches, skeletons, pirates, monsters and many different costumes. The children knock on the doors and when the people open the doors, the children say:

A trick or treat bag

Trick or treat!
Smell my feet!
Give me something good to eat!

People give them sweets, biscuits, apples and more.

In the windows there are big orange pumpkins with faces.

They are jack o' lanterns. They've got a candle inside.
