Poem: "The snow"

The falls gently
in the night.

It's cold,
it's soft
and white.

It covers the park,
the trees
and the town.

It falls,
It falls,
without a sound.

Read, color and cut the rectangle, then fold long the dotted line and glue the minicraft in your lapbook.

It's very cold today and so I'm wearing:
my red hat and scarf,
my blue coat,
my green trousers,
my black boots.... and my orange mittens.
